WORLD PHARMACIST DAY REPORT

World Pharmacist Day was celebrated on 25th September 2018 in Vaagdevi Pharmacy College, Bollikunta, and Warangal with a theme of “Pharmacists for a healthy India”. On this occasion, two eminent doctors were honoured in recognition of their expertise and professional services to society. Prof Y. Madhusudhan Rao, the Director, welcomed the gathering and advised the budding Pharmacists to be ethical and moral in their pharmacy practice services. Dr R. Srinivas, the Cardiologist, was the chief guest; in his keynote address, he spoke about the importance of the pharmacy profession in society. Dr Dileep Kumar, Psychiatrist, Memory and soft skills trainer, addressed the gathering the importance of soft skills and ways to improve memory. On this occasion, essay writing & elocution competitions were conducted for students in the college. Many students (70) have actively participated in both competitions. The best-performing students were given prizes and certificates. The program was attended by students & staff of the college. Mr R. Shiva Kumar presented a Vote of thanks. The program was Coordinated by Dr Chandra Shekhar Reddy, Professor, Mrs M. Swapna Reddy & Mr C. Mahesh, Asst. Professors, Vaagdevi pharmacy College.
