Bathukamma was celebrated on 30th September 2019 on the premises of Vaagdevi Pharmacy College, Bollikunta, Warangal, as a part of the Dussehra festival. Bathukamma is a floral festival celebrated by Hindu women and represents the cultural spirit of Telangana. In Telugu, 'Bathukamma' means 'Mother Goddess come Alive', and Goddess MahaGauri- 'Life Giver' is worshipped in the form of Bathukamma. Bathukamma celebrates the inherent relationship between Earth, Water and Human Beings. Hence Bathukamma is considered an icon of the Cultural Identity of Telangana. On this occasion, Students and staff members brought Bathukammas made with different flowers and participated in the celebrations. Students and staff enclosed bathukammas and danced in sync, clapping and singing to the traditional folk songs of Telangana.

I STAND FOR THE NATION REPORT

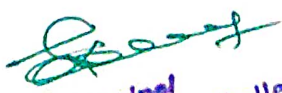

I stand for the national programme was conducted on 14th February 2020 on the premises of Vaagdevi Pharmacy College at 3:15 pm to pay tributes to the brave soldiers. They were killed in the Pulwama attack. Principal G. Kamal Yadav, staff members and students participated in the event. "I Stand for the Nation" is a unique patriotic cause, Telling the brave soldiers who render selfless service to the nation and their families that they are not forgotten. We still stand by them. This is a unique patriotic cause to garner support for the army who continue to guard us against our enemies and, in the process, lose their lives, leaving their parents and children orphaned. Thus, we have chosen 14th February 2020, 15:15 IST, on the 1st anniversary of the Pulwama attack, which killed 40 Central Reserve Police Force personnel and injured many. To unite the entire nation through a mass campaign motivating every citizen to stand and salute our brave hearts and voice solidarity with the Indian army.

SAKHI PROGRAM REPORT

Vaagdevi Pharmacy College, in association with the Police department, and the Government of Telangana, organized a Sakhi program on 17th February 2020 on the college premises. On this occasion, the police department delivered a lecture to the girl's students on the importance of self-defence training. Considering the rising number of crimes against girls in the country, providing self-defence training to them in colleges is essential to ensure their safety and security. Self-defence training is a life skill that helps girls be more aware of their surroundings and be prepared for the unexpected. Later the police academy demonstrated to the students how to self-defence in difficult situations. Through the self-defence training, the girls are taught to become psychologically, intellectually and physically strong enough to protect themselves in times of distress. Mr R. Shiva Kumar and S. Kumar Swamy's NSS team coordinated the program.
